I Solisti Ambrosiani is an Italian ensemble specialized in the ancient repertoire and in the philological performance on original instrumentation, founded in 2008 by the soprano Tullia Pedersoli and the violinist Davide Belosio.

The group finds its own style in the temperament of the individual components and in the flexibility of the training - from the duo to the small chamber orchestra.

The ensemble consists of musicians who perform concerts in Italy and abroad (Austria, Germany, France, Spain, Switzerland, Russia, Brazil, Canada). I Solisti Ambrosiani have been guests of prestigious festivals and musical seasons in several occasions, including: Segni Barocchi Foligno Festival (XXXIV 2013 edition), Todi Music Festival "Paolo Antonio Rolli" (2014, 2015, 2016, 2017), LakeComo Festival (14th edition 2014), "La Stagione degli Affetti" (Novara 2015), "Un Clavicembalo in S. Marco" (Milan 2015), Culture Week, Alessandria Barocca, Antiqua - Rassegna Internazionale di Musica Antica (XXII 2017 Edition), "Un Ponte di Note" (XV Edition 2017), Da Vinci Baroque Festival (IV Edition 2018), Festival Il Montesardo (XIX edition 2018), several times European Heritage Days, Highlight Festival 2018 (XXIV Edition) and others .

The Ensemble has made recordings that have been well reviewed by the critics, including the recording of the intermezzo "La Dirindina", in the dual version by D. Scarlatti and GB Martini (world premiere), Edizioni Bongiovanni Bologna 2016. Also the last two CDs released - "Lontan da te mia vita" with music by Tomaso Albinoni published by Urania Records, 2018 and "Antonio Caldara Sonatas and Cantatas for Violin, Soprano & continuo" with music by Caldara published by Urania Records, 2019) - include several sonatas for violin and cantatas for soprano, some of them as a first world recording.

In 2012 the group created the Musica Sibrii Festival. The Festival, since its foundation, has received the patronage of Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities and Tourism, Ministry of the Interior, Presidency of the Council of Ministers, Representative Medal of the President of the Republic (editions 2012, 2013), as well as the presidential adhesion (2014).
